Electronic Fund Transfer Disclosures

Your rights and responsibilities for electronic fund transfers are governed by the Electronic Fund Transfer Act and Regulation E.

Liability for unauthorized transfers. Tell us AT ONCE if you believe your card or PIN has been lost or stolen, or if you believe an unauthorized transfer has been made. Telephoning is the best way to limit your possible losses.

Types of transfers include direct deposits, automatic bill payments, point-of-sale purchases, ATM transactions, and online or mobile transfers.

International transfers. Outbound remittances and wires sent to accounts outside the United States are processed under the terms of the applicable transfer service; exchange rates and fees are disclosed at the time of the transaction. Retain confirmation receipts for your records.

Documentation. You will receive a monthly statement for each month in which an electronic transfer occurs. You may request a written history of transfers by contacting us.

Funds Availability Policy

Our policy is to make funds from your deposits available to you on the first business day after the day we receive your deposit. Electronic direct deposits are available on the day we receive the deposit.

In some cases we may place a hold on funds; if we do, we will notify you and tell you when the funds will be available.

Longer delays may apply to large deposits, new accounts, or when we believe a deposited item will not be paid.

Business days are Monday through Friday, excluding federal holidays.

Privacy Notice

We collect personal information such as your Social Security number, account balances, transaction history, and payment history in connection with providing products and services to you.

We may share information to process transactions, maintain your account, respond to court orders and legal investigations, and as otherwise permitted by law.

You may limit certain sharing for marketing purposes. To opt out, contact us at the number on the front of this statement.

We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards to protect your information. Member FDIC.

Statement-Period Account Activity Summary

Total deposits and credits (Jan 1 – May 31, 2026): payroll and a reversed point-of-sale credit, totaling approximately $34,800.

Total withdrawals and debits: housing, utilities, groceries, dining, transfers to investment and savings accounts, credit-card autopay, and international remittances, totaling approximately $35,900.

Average ledger balance over the period: approximately $9,000. No overdraft or returned-item fees were assessed.

A recurring monthly remittance of $1,500.00 to a recipient in India was processed each month. Separate quarterly funding wires were sent to an NRE account. International remittances are reflected as debits on the transaction detail.
