Year-to-Date Reconciliation & Withholding Guidance

Your year-to-date figures on this statement include only wages paid by Pemberton Global Inc. since your assignment start. They do not include any wages from your prior 2025 employer.

Social Security tax is withheld at 6.2% of social-security wages up to the annual wage base ($176,100 for 2025/26). Because each employer tracks the wage base separately, working for more than one employer in a calendar year can result in more than the maximum being withheld in total; the excess is claimed as a credit on your federal return (Schedule 3), not refunded by the employer.

Medicare tax is withheld at 1.45% with no wage cap. An Additional Medicare Tax of 0.9% applies to wages above $200,000; an employer applies it only to the wages it pays, so combined wages across employers may leave a shortfall reconciled on Form 8959.

Your year-to-date Social Security wages are 75,483.35, below the wage base, so Social Security is being withheld in full each period.

Employer Notes & Important Disclosures

International assignment: you are paid on U.S. payroll in USD while on assignment in London. As a U.S. citizen your worldwide wages remain subject to U.S. federal income tax. State income tax withholding has ceased because you are no longer a state resident; confirm your residency change date for state allocation.

Withholding elections are at the default single rate. To increase withholding without changing your 401(k) elections, submit an updated Form W-4 with an additional amount on Line 4(c).

Supplemental wages such as bonuses and RSU vesting are generally withheld at the flat 22% federal supplemental rate, which can be lower than your marginal rate and lead to a balance due at filing.

Pay Statement Legend

Term	Meaning
Gross pay	Total earnings before any deductions.
Pre-tax deductions	Amounts subtracted before income tax is calculated (401(k), HSA Code W, medical/dental/vision).
Code W (HSA)	Amount of employer and employee HSA contributions made through payroll; reported in Box 12 of Form W-2 with code W.
FICA	Social Security (6.2%) and Medicare (1.45%) payroll taxes.
YTD	Year-to-date totals for this employer only.
Net pay	Gross pay minus all deductions; the amount deposited.

Tax Withholding Methodology

Federal income tax on regular wages is estimated using the percentage method on wages after pre-tax deductions, annualized to your filing status. The amount shown is an estimate and is reconciled on your annual return.

Social Security: 6.2% of period social-security wages until cumulative year-to-date social-security wages reach the wage base, after which no further Social Security is withheld for the year by this employer.

Medicare: 1.45% of period Medicare wages, plus 0.9% on year-to-date Medicare wages above $200,000.

State: no state income tax is being withheld because you are a nonresident on international assignment; this does not change your federal liability.

Benefits & Deduction Detail
