Instructions for Employee (also see Notice to Employee)

Box 1. Enter this amount on the wages line of your tax return. Box 2. Enter this amount on the federal income tax withheld line of your tax return.

Box 5. You may be required to report this amount on Form 8959, Additional Medicare Tax. See the Form 1040 instructions to determine if you are required to complete Form 8959.

Box 6. This amount includes the 1.45% Medicare Tax withheld on all Medicare wages and tips shown in box 5, as well as the 0.9% Additional Medicare Tax on any of those Medicare wages and tips above $200,000.

Box 12 — Codes

Code D — Elective deferrals to a section 401(k) cash or deferred arrangement. Also includes deferrals under a SIMPLE retirement account that is part of a section 401(k) arrangement.

Code W — Employer contributions (including amounts the employee elected to contribute using a section 125 cafeteria plan) to your health savings account (HSA). Report on Form 8889, Health Savings Accounts (HSAs).

Code DD — Cost of employer-sponsored health coverage. The amount reported with Code DD is not taxable.

Box 13. If the 'Retirement plan' box is checked, special limits may apply to the amount of traditional IRA contributions you may deduct. See Pub. 590-A.

Box 14. Employers may use this box to report information such as state disability insurance taxes withheld, union dues, uniform payments, health insurance premiums deducted, nontaxable income, or educational assistance payments. Union dues reported here are personal expenses and are not deductible on your federal return for tax years 2018 through 2025.

Notice to Employee

Do you have to file? Refer to the Form 1040 instructions to determine if you are required to file a tax return. Even if you do not have to file a tax return, you may be eligible for a refund if box 2 shows an amount or if you are eligible for any credit.

Earned income credit (EIC). You may be able to take the EIC for 2025 if your adjusted gross income (AGI) is less than a certain amount. The amount of the credit is based on income and family size. Workers without children could qualify for a smaller credit. You cannot take the EIC if your investment income is more than the specified amount. For more information, see Pub. 596.

Clergy and religious workers. If you are not subject to social security and Medicare taxes, see Pub. 517.

Corrections. If your name, SSN, or address is incorrect, correct Copies B, C, and 2 and ask your employer to correct your employment record. Be sure to ask the employer to file Form W-2c, Corrected Wage and Tax Statement, with the Social Security Administration (SSA) to correct any name, SSN, or money amount error reported to the SSA on Form W-2.

Credit for excess taxes. If you had more than one employer in 2025 and more than $10,918.20 in social security and/or Tier 1 railroad retirement (RRTA) taxes were withheld, you may be able to claim a credit for the excess against your federal income tax. If you had more than one railroad employer, see the Instructions for Form 1040.

Cost of employer-sponsored health coverage (if such cost is provided by the employer). The reporting in box 12, using code DD, is for your information only. The amount reported with code DD is not taxable.

General Filing Information

This Wage and Tax Statement reports wages paid and taxes withheld for the calendar year shown. Retain all copies for your records. Copy B is filed with your federal income tax return. Copy C is for your records. Copy 2 is filed with your state, city, or local income tax return when required. The Social Security Administration matches the amounts reported here against the wages credited to your earnings record; review your statement at the SSA for accuracy.

If you believe any figure on this statement is incorrect, contact your employer's payroll department before filing your return. Do not alter the printed figures; a corrected statement (Form W-2c) must be issued by the employer.

Box-by-Box Reference

Box a — Employee's social security number. For your protection, this form may show only the last four digits of your SSN; the complete number has been reported to the SSA and the IRS.

Box b — Employer identification number (EIN). The employer's federal identification number.

Box c — Employer's name, address, and ZIP code.

Boxes e and f — Employee's name and mailing address as carried in the employer's payroll records.

Box 1 — Wages, tips, other compensation. Federally taxable wages after pre-tax reductions such as 401(k) elective deferrals (Code D), section 125 cafeteria-plan health premiums, and employer/cafeteria HSA contributions (Code W).

Box 2 — Federal income tax withheld during the year. Compare against your total tax liability to determine your refund or balance due.

Boxes 3 and 5 — Social security and Medicare wages. These are generally higher than Box 1 because elective 401(k) deferrals are subject to FICA even though they are excluded from federal income tax. Section 125 health premiums and Code W HSA amounts are excluded from Boxes 1, 3, and 5 alike.

Boxes 4 and 6 — Social security tax (6.2% up to the annual wage base) and Medicare tax (1.45% on all Medicare wages) withheld.

Boxes 15–17 — State wages and state income tax withheld. Boxes 18–20 — Local wages, local income tax withheld, and the name of the locality (here, Allen County, Indiana).

Reference for State and Local Filing — Indiana

Indiana imposes a flat state adjusted-gross-income tax. The state wages shown in Box 16 generally equal the federal wages in Box 1. Report the state income tax withheld in Box 17 on your Indiana Form IT-40 as Indiana state tax withheld.

County tax. Indiana counties levy a local income tax administered through the state return. The local wages and local income tax withheld appear in Boxes 18 and 19, and the county of residence or principal employment is named in Box 20. Report the county tax withheld on the appropriate schedule of Form IT-40.

If you lived or worked in more than one Indiana county during the year, your county of residence on January 1 generally controls the rate applied. Consult the Indiana county tax rate schedule (Departmental Notice #1) for the rates in effect for the year.

Credit for taxes paid to other states. If any portion of your wages was taxed by another state, you may be entitled to a credit; see the Form IT-40 instructions.
