In Case of Errors or Questions About Your Electronic Transfers

Telephone us or write us at the address shown on the front of this statement as soon as you can if you think your statement or receipt is wrong or if you need more information about a transfer listed on the statement or receipt. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the FIRST statement on which the error or problem appeared.

Tell us your name and account number. Describe the error or the transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe it is an error or why you need more information. Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

We will investigate your complaint and will correct any error promptly. If we take more than 10 business days to do this, we will credit your account for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have the use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation.

Truth-in-Savings Disclosure

This account is a non-interest-bearing transaction account. There is no minimum balance required to avoid the imposition of fees, provided a qualifying direct deposit posts each statement cycle.

Fees that could be assessed on this account include an overdraft item fee, a returned item fee, and a stop-payment fee. Refer to the published Schedule of Fees for current amounts.

Deposits are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) up to the maximum amount allowed by law.

Balancing Your Account

1. List any deposits or other credits that are not shown on this statement. 2. List any checks, withdrawals, payments, or other debits that have not yet posted. 3. Enter the ending balance shown on this statement. 4. Add the deposits from step 1 and subtract the debits from step 2 to determine your adjusted balance. This adjusted balance should agree with your own records.

Electronic Fund Transfers — Your Rights and Responsibilities

This disclosure describes your rights and our responsibilities for electronic fund transfers (EFTs), including direct deposits, automatic bill payments, point-of-sale debit transactions, and online transfers. You may arrange for direct deposit of your pay and for preauthorized payments to third parties.

If you have told us in advance to make regular payments out of your account, you can stop any of these payments by calling or writing us in time for us to receive your request three business days or more before the payment is scheduled. We may require written confirmation within 14 days.

We will disclose information to third parties about your account or the transfers you make only where necessary to complete transfers, to verify the existence and condition of your account, to comply with legal process, or with your written permission.

Privacy Notice

We collect nonpublic personal information about you from applications and other forms, from your transactions with us, and from consumer reporting agencies. We do not disclose any nonpublic personal information about our customers or former customers except as permitted by law.

We restrict access to your nonpublic personal information to those employees who need to know that information to provide products or services to you. We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with federal standards to guard your nonpublic personal information.

Schedule of Fees (Selected)

Monthly maintenance fee: $0 with one qualifying direct deposit per cycle. Overdraft item fee: $32 per item. Returned (NSF) item fee: $32 per item. Stop-payment fee: $30. Outgoing domestic wire: $25. Replacement debit card: $7.50. Paper statement fee: $3 (waived with e-statements).

Fees are subject to change with advance notice as required by law. Refer to your account agreement for the complete schedule and for the terms governing the assessment and waiver of each fee.
