Messages

Open enrollment for the 2027 plan year begins November 1. Review your HSA and 401(k) elections.

Reminder: 2026 IRS limits — 401(k) elective deferral and catch-up amounts may differ from prior years. Verify your election does not exceed the annual limit across all plans.

Questions about your pay? Contact Payroll at payroll@keystoneoffice.example or ext. 4100.

Withholding Elections on File

Form	Election	Detail
Federal W-4 (2026)	Married filing jointly	Step 2 (multiple jobs): not checked
Federal W-4	Dependents claimed	$2,000 (one qualifying child under 17)
Federal W-4	Extra withholding	$0.00 per pay period
PA Residency Cert.	Resident — Scranton	PSD 35-0010; combined rate 3.40%

Your federal withholding is calculated using the IRS percentage method based on your W-4 elections. Commissions are supplemental wages and may be withheld at a flat supplemental rate when paid separately, which can cause total annual withholding to differ from your eventual tax liability. Review your elections if you expect a balance due.

Tax and Compliance Notices

Social Security wage base: Social Security tax (6.2%) applies to wages up to the annual Social Security wage base. Once your year-to-date Social Security wages reach the base, no further Social Security tax is withheld for the remainder of the year. Your current annualized wages are below the base, so the 6.2% applies to all pay periods.

Additional Medicare Tax: An extra 0.9% Medicare tax applies to wages above $200,000 in a calendar year (withheld by the employer once your wages with this employer exceed $200,000), regardless of filing status. Your wages are below this threshold, so no Additional Medicare Tax is being withheld.

Pennsylvania and local tax: Pennsylvania income tax (3.07%) and Scranton local Earned Income Tax (3.40%) apply to your compensation including 401(k) elective deferrals; this is why your state and local taxable wages differ from your federal taxable wages.

This earnings statement is a payroll document, not a tax form. Your Form W-2 issued in January is the official wage and tax statement for filing your return.
