My notes (do not file)

Okay so this is what I added up. Three 1099-Ks came in the mail: the rideshare one, the Snaplii one, and a Venmo one. Plus the little Vanta incentive form. Plus my W-2 from the bar.

I just put every number from every form on the income line because I don't know what's already been reported to the IRS and what hasn't, and I figured if it's on a form they already know about it.

Questions I still need to answer before I actually file:

- The Venmo total includes money my roommate sent me for rent and a friend paying me back for concert tickets. Is that really income?
- The rideshare 'gross' is way more than what actually hit my bank. Vanta takes a big cut. Can I subtract their fees?
- I drove a TON. Do the miles count for anything?
- I bought the $14,000 camera kit this year for the photo business. Does that do anything on taxes?
- I never paid any quarterly taxes. Am I going to get penalized on top of what I owe?

Right now the draft says I owe a terrifying amount. I really hope that's wrong. Need to redo this correctly.

Form 2210 — Underpayment of Estimated Tax (blank worksheet)

Use this worksheet to determine whether you owe a penalty for not paying enough estimated tax during the year.

Part I — Required Annual Payment

- 1 Current year tax (after credits) _____
- 2 Multiply line 1 by 90% _____
- 3 Withholding taxes _____
- 4 Subtract line 3 from line 1; if less than $1,000, stop _____
- 5 Prior year tax (110% if prior-year AGI over $150,000) _____
- 6 Required annual payment (smaller of line 2 or line 5) _____

Part II — Penalty

If withholding (line 3) is less than the required annual payment (line 6), a penalty may apply, computed by quarter at the federal underpayment rate. The IRS can figure the penalty for you.

(Nothing entered yet — I never made estimated payments, so I need to work this out.)

2025 Estimated Tax — Record of Payments

Quarterly estimated tax payments I made for 2025:

Q1 (due Apr 15, 2025): $0.00

Q2 (due Jun 16, 2025): $0.00

Q3 (due Sep 15, 2025): $0.00

Q4 (due Jan 15, 2026): $0.00

Total estimated payments: $0.00

The only federal tax paid in during 2025 was the income tax withheld from my bartending paycheck (W-2 box 2). I did not make any quarterly estimated payments.

Signature & Filing (not yet filed)

This is a DRAFT prepared by the taxpayer and has NOT been signed or filed. The figures shown are the taxpayer's first-pass estimate and are believed to be overstated; they should be recomputed correctly before filing.

Where to file / e-file: see the Form 1040 instructions. Many taxpayers with self-employment income use tax software or a preparer to ensure Schedule C, Schedule SE, the QBI deduction, and Form 2210 are completed correctly.
