Form W-2 Wage and Tax Statement

Tax year 2025 • Department of the Treasury — Internal Revenue Service

Notice to Employee (Form W-2)

Instructions kept by the employee — Department of the Treasury, IRS

Do you have to file? Refer to the Form 1040 instructions to determine if you are required to file a return. Even if you do not have to file, you should file to get a refund of any federal income tax withheld. You may also be able to take advantage of certain credits.

Earned income credit (EIC). You may be able to take the EIC for 2025 if your adjusted gross income (AGI) is less than a certain amount. The amount of the credit is based on income and family size. For a worker with no qualifying children, the AGI limit is approximately $19,100 for 2025; workers above that limit generally cannot claim the childless EIC.

Clergy and religious workers. If you are not subject to social security and Medicare taxes, see Pub. 517.

Corrections. If your name, SSN, or amounts are incorrect, ask your employer to issue a corrected Form W-2c.

Credit for excess social security tax. If you had more than one employer in 2025 and total social security wages were over $176,100, too much social security tax may have been withheld. You may be able to claim the excess as a credit against your federal income tax. With a single employer this does not apply.

Cost of employer-sponsored health coverage (if shown in box 12, code DD) is not taxable.

Instructions for Employee — Box by Box

Box 1

The amount in box 1 is your total taxable wages, tips, and other compensation for federal income tax purposes. This amount is reported on Form 1040, line 1a.

Box 2

The federal income tax your employer withheld. Report this on Form 1040 in the payments section (line 25a). If too little was withheld you may owe a balance and, in some cases, an underpayment penalty.

Boxes 3-6

Social security wages, social security tax withheld, Medicare wages, and Medicare tax withheld. These taxes are separate from income tax and are not refunded simply because your income tax liability is low.

Box 12 (codes)

Common codes: D (401(k) elective deferrals), DD (cost of employer-sponsored health coverage, informational), W (employer HSA contributions). None are present on this statement.

Box 13

'Retirement plan' is checked if you were an active participant in an employer plan. This box is not checked here.

Boxes 15-17

Your state, state wages, and state income tax withheld. Georgia uses a flat individual income tax rate for 2025; report box 16 and 17 on your Georgia return.

Self-employment income

This W-2 reflects only your wages from this employer. Income you earned as an independent contractor or through payment apps is reported separately to you on Forms 1099-NEC and 1099-K and is subject to self-employment tax — it is not included in this W-2.

A note from your employer

Enclosed is your 2025 Form W-2, Wage and Tax Statement. Please review all amounts for accuracy and retain Copy C for your records. Copy B should be attached to your federal income tax return if you file a paper return; Copy 2 is for your Georgia return.

Reminder: as a tipped employee, only the cash wages we paid through payroll and any tips you reported to us during the year are reflected in this form. Tips you received directly and did not report to the employer are not included here and may still be taxable to you.

If you believe any figure is incorrect, contact payroll within 30 days so we can issue a Form W-2c if needed.

Frequently Asked Questions

I have a W-2 and several 1099s. Do they go on the same return?

Yes. All of your 2025 income — W-2 wages and self-employment income reported on 1099-NEC and 1099-K — is reported on the same Form 1040. The W-2 wages go on line 1a; your self-employment activity is reported on Schedule C, and self-employment tax on Schedule SE.

Why is my federal withholding so low?

Withholding is based on the Form W-4 you filed and your wage level at this job. Because this is part-time work, withholding is small and generally will not cover the income tax and self-employment tax due on your other (1099) earnings. Many gig workers make quarterly estimated payments to avoid a balance due and underpayment penalty.

What is an underpayment penalty?

If you do not pay enough tax during the year through withholding and estimated payments, the IRS may charge a penalty computed on Form 2210, even if you pay the full balance by the filing deadline.
