Average Daily Balance Method

Balance type	APR (variable)	Daily periodic rate	Avg daily balance	Days	Interest
Purchases	25.49%	0.06984%	$11,240.17	31	$238.76
Cash advances	30.49%	0.08353%	$0.00	31	$0.00
Total					$238.76

Monthly periodic rate = $\text{APR} \div 12 = 25.49\% \div 12 = 2.1242\%$. Interest = average daily balance $\$11,240.17 \times 2.1242\% = \238.76 . (Equivalently, $25.49\% \div 365 \times 31 \text{ days} \times \$11,240.17 \approx \$238.76$.)

Minimum Payment Warning (required disclosure)

If you make only the minimum payment of $224.80 each period, because the monthly interest charge ($238.76) currently EXCEEDS the minimum payment, your balance will NOT decrease — it will grow. You must pay more than the interest accrued each month to make progress.

Fixed monthly payment	Time to pay off	Total interest paid
\$224.80 (minimum)	Never (interest $\geq$ payment)	Balance grows
$300.00	76 months	$11,438.90
$400.00	44 months	$6,050.59
$500.00	31 months	$4,202.47
$750.00	19 months	$2,435.58
$1,000.00	13 months	$1,738.91

Scenarios assume no new purchases and a constant APR. Paying $750/month clears the balance in about 19 months with roughly $2,436 of interest, versus never at the minimum. With income paused after the layoff, weigh accelerated payoff against preserving cash runway.

How to Avoid Paying Interest on Purchases

Your due date is at least 25 days after the close of each billing cycle. You can avoid interest on purchases by paying the entire New Balance by the due date each month. Because a balance is currently carried, interest is assessed from the transaction date and there is no grace period until the balance is paid in full.

APR for cash advances (variable)	30.49%
Penalty APR	up to 29.99% if 60 days past due
Minimum interest charge	$1.00
Minimum payment	greater of $35 or 2% of balance
Grace period	25 days (purchases, if paid in full)

If you think there is an error on your statement, write to Summit Card Services within 60 days. You may withhold payment on the disputed amount while the issuer investigates, but you must still pay the parts of the balance not in question.
