Survivor Annuity — Monthly Payment Detail, 2025

Your railroad retirement survivor annuity is paid as a single monthly payment on the first business day of each month. The payment combines the Tier I Social Security Equivalent Benefit (reported on Form RRB-1099) and the Non-Social Security Equivalent Benefit plus Tier II (reported on Form RRB-1099-R). Medicare premiums are withheld before the net amount is deposited to your bank account.

Total — 12 months	13,548.00	4,632.00	18,180.00	2,220.00	15,960.00

The SSEB column totals to Box 5 of Form RRB-1099 ($13,548.00). The NSSEB + Tier II column totals to Box 7 of Form RRB-1099-R ($4,632.00). Medicare premiums of $2,220.00 (Box 11 of Form RRB-1099) were withheld during the year. The net deposited to your bank was $15,960.00.

Annuity Component & Cost-of-Living History

Survivor annuity in effect since 2023. Annual amounts by component (gross, before Medicare):

Year	SSEB (Tier I)	NSSEB + Tier II	Total Gross	COLA
2023	13,116.00	4,488.00	17,604.00	—
2024	13,332.00	4,560.00	17,892.00	1.6%
2025	13,548.00	4,632.00	18,180.00	1.6%

Cost-of-living adjustments to Tier I mirror Social Security COLAs; Tier II receives a separate adjustment. Employee contributions (Box 3 of Form RRB-1099-R) represent the employee's cost in the contract and are unchanged from year to year unless recalculated by the Board. Federal income tax is withheld only if you have filed Form W-4V; no voluntary withholding election is currently on file for this annuity.

Explanation of Form RRB-1099 Tax Statement

The Form RRB-1099 tax statement is issued by the U.S. Railroad Retirement Board (RRB) and represents payments made to you in the tax year indicated on the statement. You will need to determine if any of the railroad retirement payments made to you are taxable.

Form RRB-1099 reports the Social Security Equivalent Benefit (SSEB) portion of tier I and special guaranty benefits paid and repaid to citizens and/or residents of the United States, and the related U.S. Federal income tax withheld. SSEB payments are similar to social security benefits for U.S. Federal income tax purposes.

To determine if any part of your SSEB payments is taxable, refer to the Social Security Benefits Worksheet in the Instructions for Form 1040 and/or IRS Publication 915, Social Security and Equivalent Railroad Retirement Benefits. Railroad retirement payments are not taxable for state income tax purposes.

Note: You may also receive a Form RRB-1099-R tax statement in addition to this Form RRB-1099. Form RRB-1099-R reports the Non-Social Security Equivalent Benefit (NSSEB) portion of tier I, tier II, vested dual benefit, and supplemental annuity payments, which are treated as a private pension.

Explanation of Items on Form RRB-1099

Box 3 - Gross Social Security Equivalent Benefit Portion of Tier I Paid. This is the total SSEB portion of tier I benefits paid to you during the tax year indicated.

Box 4 - SSEB Portion of Tier I Repaid to RRB. This is the total SSEB benefits you repaid to the RRB during the tax year indicated.

Box 5 - Net Social Security Equivalent Benefit Portion of Tier I Paid. This total is the amount in Box 3 minus the amount in Box 4. To see if any part of the SSEB is taxable, refer to the Social Security Benefits Worksheet in the Instructions for Form 1040.

Box 6 - Workers' Compensation Offset. For informational purposes; included in the amount in Box 3.

Boxes 7, 8 and 9 - SSEB paid for one, two, and three or more years prior to the year shown. These amounts are included in the amount shown in Box 3.

Box 10 - Federal Income Tax Withheld. The amount of U.S. Federal income tax withheld from your SSEB payments. Include this on your income tax return as tax withheld.

Box 11 - Medicare Premium Total. The total amount of Part B, C, and/or D Medicare premiums deducted from your railroad retirement annuity payments. The amounts in Boxes 3 and 5 are before any deduction for Medicare premiums.

Social Security Benefits Worksheet — Reference (Form 1040)
