Truth-in-Savings Dividend Disclosure

Rate Information. The Regular Checking account earned an APY of 0.05% and the Emergency Savings account earned an APY of 0.35% for this statement period. The dividend rate and APY may change at any time as determined by the Board of Directors.

Compounding and Crediting. Dividends are compounded daily and credited monthly. The dividend period is monthly. If you close your account before dividends are credited, you will not receive the accrued dividends.

Balance Computation. We use the daily balance method, which applies a daily periodic rate to the principal in the account each day. Dividends begin to accrue on the business day you deposit non-cash items such as checks.

Minimum Balance. No minimum balance is required for Regular Checking. A $5.00 minimum share is required to remain a member in good standing.

Privacy Notice — FACTS: What Does Garden State FCU Do With Your Personal Information?

Why? Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information.

Account Agreement and Disclosures (Excerpt)

Membership and Account Agreement. Your account is governed by this Agreement, the Truth-in-Savings disclosures, the Schedule of Fees and Charges, and applicable law. By requesting any service or maintaining your account, you agree to these terms as amended from time to time.

Eligibility and Par Value. Membership requires maintaining at least one share (the $5.00 par value) in a Regular Savings account. If your savings falls below par value for more than 12 months, we may terminate membership after notice.

Deposits. Funds may be deposited in person, by mail, by electronic transfer, or by direct deposit. We may refuse, limit, or return any deposit. Items credited to your account are received subject to final payment by the payor institution.

Withdrawals and Transfers. Any owner may withdraw funds, subject to our right to require advance notice for share and share-certificate accounts. Pre-authorized electronic transfers from savings may be limited by law and our policies.

Dividends. Dividends are paid from current income and available earnings after required transfers to reserves, as declared by the Board of Directors, and are not guaranteed.

Statements and Notices. You must examine each statement and report any error, unauthorized transaction, or forgery within the time periods stated below and under applicable law. Notice to any one owner is notice to all owners.

Stop Payments. You may request a stop payment in accordance with applicable law and our procedures. Stop-payment orders on checks are effective for six months and may be renewed. A fee applies as set forth in the Schedule of Fees.

Liability. You agree to pay service charges and to reimburse the Credit Union for losses we incur as a result of your account. If your account is overdrawn, you agree to repay it immediately. Joint owners are jointly and severally liable.

Amendments and Termination. We may change the terms of this Agreement and any fees at any time, with notice as required by law. Either party may close the account at any time; closing does not release obligations owed to the Credit Union.

Governing Law. This Agreement is governed by the Federal Credit Union Act, NCUA regulations, and, to the extent not preempted, the laws of the State of New Jersey.

Additional Account Terms

Field of Membership. Membership is open to persons who live, work, worship, or attend school in the counties we serve, and to members of their immediate families and households. Membership continues even if you later move outside the area, so long as you maintain your share account in good standing.

Joint Accounts and Survivorship. Unless you tell us otherwise in writing, a joint account is owned as joint tenants with right of survivorship. On the death of one owner, the funds belong to the surviving owner(s), subject to our right of setoff and to applicable law.

Payable-on-Death (Beneficiaries). You may designate one or more payable-on-death beneficiaries. On the death of all owners, funds are payable to the surviving beneficiaries in equal shares, subject to applicable law and our procedures.

Right of Setoff and Statutory Lien. You grant us a lien on and a right of setoff against all funds in any account you have with us to satisfy any debt you owe us, to the extent permitted by law. This right does not apply to accounts or obligations where setoff is prohibited.

Legal Process. If we are served with a garnishment, levy, subpoena, or other legal process affecting your account, we may comply without prior notice and may charge a processing fee. We are not liable to you for honoring legal process even if it later proves invalid, except as required by law.

Dormant Accounts and Escheatment. If you do not initiate activity on your account for the period specified by New Jersey law, your account may be classified as dormant and ultimately the funds may be remitted to the State as unclaimed property. We will attempt to notify you at your address of record before remitting funds.

Deceased Member. Upon notice of an owner's death, we may freeze the account and require documentation before releasing funds to a survivor, beneficiary, or estate representative in accordance with applicable law.

Account Errors and Adjustments. We may make adjustments to your account to correct posting errors, including reversing credits made in error. If an adjustment results in a negative balance, you agree to repay the amount promptly.

Closing Your Account. Either you or the Credit Union may close the account at any time. We may require seven days' written notice of intent to withdraw from certain share accounts. You remain responsible for items and obligations incurred before closing.

Waiver and Severability. Our failure to enforce any provision of this Agreement is not a waiver of our right to do so later. If any provision is found unenforceable, the remaining provisions continue in full force and effect.

Electronic Fund Transfers — Your Rights and Responsibilities

Types of transfers. This account supports preauthorized (ACH) credits such as direct deposit; preauthorized debits such as recurring bill payments; point-of-sale and online debit-card purchases; person-to-person transfers; ATM transactions; and internal transfers between your accounts.

Preauthorized payments. If you have told us in advance to make regular payments out of your account, you can stop any of these payments by calling 1-800-555-0142 or writing to Garden State FCU, 475 Broad Street, Newark, NJ 07102 in time for us to receive your request three business days or more before the payment is scheduled. If you call, we may also require you to put your request in writing within 14 days.

Your liability for unauthorized transfers. Tell us AT ONCE if you believe your card or access code has been lost or stolen, or that an electronic transfer has been made without your permission. Telephoning is the best way to keep your possible losses down. If you tell us within two business days after you learn of the loss or theft, you can lose no more than $50. If you do NOT tell us within two business days, you could lose as much as $500.

Errors or questions. In case of errors or questions about your electronic transfers, telephone 1-800-555-0142 or write to Garden State FCU, 475 Broad Street, Newark, NJ 07102 as soon as you can. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent the FIRST statement on which the problem appeared. Tell us your name and account number, describe the error and why you believe it is an error, and tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

Our investigation. We will determine whether an error occurred within 10 business days (20 for new accounts) after we hear from you and will correct any error promptly. If we need more time, we may take up to 45 days (90 for new accounts, point-of-sale, or foreign-initiated transfers) and will provisionally credit your account so you have use of the funds during the investigation.

Confidentiality. We will disclose information to third parties about your account or the transfers you make only where necessary to complete transfers, to verify the existence and condition of your account, to comply with law or legal process, or with your written permission.

Funds Availability Policy (Regulation CC)

General policy. Our policy is to make funds from your check and electronic deposits available to you on the first business day after the day we receive your deposit. Electronic direct deposits are available on the day we receive the deposit. Once funds are available, you can withdraw them in cash and we will use them to pay items presented.

Determining availability. For determining the availability of your deposits, every day is a business day except Saturdays, Sundays, and federal holidays. If you make a deposit before our cutoff hour on a business day, we consider that day to be the day of deposit; otherwise the deposit is considered received the next business day.

Longer delays may apply. Funds you deposit by check may be delayed for a longer period if we believe a check will not be paid, deposited checks total more than $5,525 on any one day, you redeposit a returned check, you have overdrawn your account repeatedly in the last six months, or an emergency such as a communications failure occurs.

Holds on other funds. If we accept for deposit a check drawn on another institution, we may make funds from the deposit available for withdrawal immediately but delay your availability to withdraw a corresponding amount of funds you have on deposit in another account with us.

New accounts. For accounts open less than 30 days, the first $6,725 of certain next-day items is available on the first business day after deposit; the remainder may be available on the ninth business day.

Electronic Records and Signatures (E-SIGN) Consent

Scope. By enrolling in electronic delivery you consent to receive statements, disclosures, notices, tax forms, and other communications from Garden State Federal Credit Union electronically, through online banking at gsfcu.example or by email, instead of on paper.

Hardware and software. To access and retain electronic records you need a current web browser, internet access, a valid email address, and the ability to view and save PDF documents. Standard message and data rates may apply.

Withdrawing consent. You may withdraw your consent to electronic delivery at any time and request paper copies by contacting us; a per-item fee may apply for paper copies as shown in the Schedule of Fees and Charges. Withdrawing consent will not affect the legal validity of records provided electronically before withdrawal.

Keeping records current. You agree to keep your email address and contact information current so that we can deliver electronic records to you. We are not responsible for non-delivery caused by an out-of-date address.

Retention. Electronic records remain available for at least the period required by law and generally for the most recent statement periods through online banking; you should download and retain copies for your records.

Dispute Resolution and Arbitration

Informal resolution first. Most concerns can be resolved quickly by contacting Member/Customer Service. You agree to give us a reasonable opportunity to resolve any dispute informally before initiating arbitration or litigation.

Agreement to arbitrate. If a dispute is not resolved informally, you or Garden State Federal Credit Union may elect to resolve it through binding individual arbitration administered by a nationally recognized arbitration organization under its consumer rules, rather than in court, except for matters that qualify for small-claims court.

No class actions. To the extent permitted by law, disputes will be arbitrated on an individual basis only, and you and Garden State Federal Credit Union waive any right to participate in a class action or class-wide arbitration. This provision does not apply where it is prohibited by applicable law.

Right to opt out. You may opt out of this arbitration provision by sending written notice within 60 days of opening your account. Opting out will not affect any other provision of your agreement or any other product or service.

Governing law. Except as otherwise provided, your agreement is governed by applicable federal law and the laws of the State of New Jersey, without regard to its conflict-of-laws principles.

Overdraft and Courtesy Pay Disclosure

What is an overdraft. An overdraft occurs when you do not have enough available funds in your account to cover a transaction, but we pay it anyway. We can cover overdrafts with a discretionary courtesy-pay service or with an overdraft line of credit or a linked-account transfer, if you have one.

Your choices. We will authorize and pay overdrafts for checks and recurring electronic payments at our discretion. We will NOT authorize everyday debit-card or ATM transactions into overdraft unless you opt in. This account is currently opted-out of everyday debit-card overdraft coverage.

Fees. If we pay an item into overdraft we may charge a fee as set forth in the Schedule of Fees and Charges. We will not charge more than a stated number of such fees per day. If your account remains overdrawn, you must bring it to a positive balance promptly.

Linked protection. You may link a savings account or line of credit to automatically transfer available funds to cover items, which is generally less costly than courtesy pay. Contact Member Service to arrange linked protection.

Debit Card Agreement (Summary)

Use of your card. Your debit card accesses funds in your checking account for purchases and ATM withdrawals. You agree to use the card only for lawful transactions and to keep your PIN confidential and separate from your card.

Authorization holds. When you use your card, a merchant may obtain authorization for an amount that differs from the final transaction (for example at fuel pumps, hotels, or restaurants). Authorization holds reduce your available balance until the transaction settles.

Foreign transactions. Transactions made in a foreign currency are converted to U.S. dollars by the card network and may be subject to a foreign-transaction fee as disclosed in the Schedule of Fees and Charges.

Lost or stolen card. Notify us immediately at 1-800-555-0142 if your card is lost or stolen or if you suspect unauthorized use. Your liability for unauthorized debit-card transactions is governed by the Electronic Fund Transfer disclosure above and the card-network zero-liability policy, subject to its conditions.

Recurring payments. If you have set up recurring payments using your card number, update the merchant if your card is reissued with a new number or expiration date to avoid interrupted service.

Online and Mobile Banking Agreement (Summary)

Access. Online and mobile banking let you view balances and statements, transfer funds, pay bills, and send person-to-person payments. You are responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of your login credentials and for all transactions made using them.

Bill pay and transfers. Scheduled payments and transfers must be entered before the daily cutoff to be processed that business day. You are responsible for scheduling payments with enough lead time for delivery. We are not liable for payments that fail because of insufficient funds or incorrect payee information you provide.

Mobile deposit. Checks deposited by mobile capture are subject to verification and to our Funds Availability Policy. You agree to retain the original check for the period we specify and then to destroy it to prevent re-presentment.

Alerts and security. We may offer balance and security alerts via email or text. Alerts are a convenience and are not a substitute for monitoring your account. Message and data rates may apply. Do not share one-time passcodes with anyone, including persons claiming to be from Garden State Federal Credit Union.

Availability. Services at gsfcu.example may be unavailable from time to time for maintenance or circumstances beyond our control. We are not liable for losses caused by such interruptions except as required by law.

Substitute Checks, Tax Reporting, and Important Information

Substitute checks (Check 21). A substitute check is a paper reproduction of an original check that is the legal equivalent of the original. In certain cases, federal law provides a special procedure that allows you to request a refund for losses you suffer if a substitute check is posted to your account in error.

Year-end tax reporting. Dividends or interest of $10 or more earned during the calendar year are reported to you and to the IRS on Form 1099-INT after year-end. Keep your tax forms with your records. Consult a tax professional for advice about your specific situation; this statement is not tax advice.

Address and name changes. Notify us promptly of any change of address, name, or ownership. We send notices to the most recent address in our records; notice to any one owner constitutes notice to all owners.

Negative-information notice. We may report information about your account to credit bureaus. Late payments, missed payments, or other defaults on a credit obligation may be reflected in your credit report.

Regulatory Notices

NCUA Share Insurance. Your savings are federally insured to at least $250,000 and backed by the full faith and credit of the United States Government through the National Credit Union Administration (NCUA), a U.S. Government agency. Coverage is per-member, per ownership category. Individually owned accounts are insured separately from jointly owned accounts and from certain retirement accounts. Use the NCUA Share Insurance Estimator to calculate your coverage.

USA PATRIOT Act — Important Information About Procedures for Opening a New Account. To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money-laundering activities, federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. When you open an account we will ask for your name, address, date of birth, and other information that allows us to identify you, and we may ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents.

Equal Credit Opportunity / Fair Lending. The federal Equal Credit Opportunity Act prohibits creditors from discriminating against credit applicants on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, age (provided the applicant has the capacity to contract), because all or part of the applicant's income derives from a public assistance program, or because the applicant has in good faith exercised any right under the Consumer Credit Protection Act. The federal agency that administers compliance with this law is the NCUA.

Complaint Procedures. If you have a complaint, first contact Member Service at 1-800-555-0142. If your complaint is not resolved, you may contact the NCUA Consumer Assistance Center, 1775 Duke Street, Alexandria, VA 22314, or the New Jersey Department of Banking and Insurance. We are committed to resolving member concerns fairly and promptly.

Negative Balance and Collection. Accounts that remain overdrawn may be closed and reported to consumer reporting agencies such as ChexSystems. Amounts owed may be referred for collection, and you may be responsible for collection costs to the extent permitted by law.

Balancing Your Account — Reconciliation Worksheet

To balance your account, compare this statement to your own records. (1) In your records, mark off each deposit and withdrawal that appears on this statement. (2) List any deposits you have made that are not yet shown here. (3) List any withdrawals, checks, or payments you have made that have not yet posted. (4) Use the worksheet below.

Step	Description	Amount
A	Ending balance shown on this statement	_____
B	ADD: deposits/credits not yet on this statement	_____
C	Subtotal (A + B)	_____
D	SUBTRACT: outstanding withdrawals/checks/payments	_____
E	Adjusted balance (C - D) — should equal your records	_____

If your adjusted balance does not match your records, recheck your addition and subtraction, confirm each item's amount, and verify that all automatic payments and deposits have been recorded. If you still cannot reconcile, contact Member Service within 60 days of the statement date.

Posting Order and Wire Transfers

Posting Order. When multiple items are presented on the same business day, we generally post deposits first, then withdrawals. Within withdrawals, items are generally posted in the order received or by amount, as permitted by law and our procedures. The order in which items post can affect whether an item overdraws your account.

Wire Transfers (UCC Article 4A). If you send or receive a wire transfer, you agree that we may rely on the account or identifying number you provide, even if it identifies a person different from the named party. Payment of an incoming wire to you is provisional until final settlement. We are not obligated to notify you of an incoming wire except on this periodic statement. Cut-off times apply to outgoing wire requests.

Stale and Postdated Items. We are not obligated to pay a check presented more than six months after its date, but we may do so in good faith. We may pay a postdated check before its date unless you give us timely written notice.

Frequently Asked Questions

Q. How do I find my account and routing numbers?

Your routing number appears at the top of this statement. Your full account number is available in online banking or by contacting Member Service; for security, statements show only the last four digits.

Q. How do I set up or change direct deposit?

Provide your employer or payer with the Credit Union routing number and your account number, and indicate checking or savings. Direct-deposit credits are generally available the day we receive them.

Q. When are dividends posted?

Dividends are compounded daily and credited to your account on the last day of each monthly dividend period. The amount earned this period is shown in the account summary.

Q. How can I avoid the monthly maintenance fee?

The monthly maintenance fee on Regular Checking is waived in any month with a qualifying direct deposit or by maintaining the minimum average daily balance described in the Fee Schedule.

Q. How do I dispute a transaction?

Contact Member Service within 60 days of the statement on which the item appears. See the Electronic Fund Transfers section for your rights and our investigation timeline.

Q. How do I order checks or a new debit card?

Requests can be made through online banking or by contacting Member Service. A replacement-card fee may apply for rush delivery as shown in the Fee Schedule.

Q. Is my money insured?

Yes. Your accounts are federally insured by the NCUA to at least $250,000 per member, per ownership category, as described in the Regulatory Notices section.

Q. How do I update my address?

Update your address in online banking or notify Member Service in writing. We send notices to the most recent address in our records.
