Box-by-box explanation of your 2025 Form W-2

Box 1

Federal taxable wages. Equals gross salary less pre-tax amounts excluded from federal income tax: your NMERB 414(h) pick-up contributions and your Section 125 (cafeteria-plan) medical, dental, and vision premiums.

Boxes 3 & 5

Social security and Medicare wages. Your 414(h) contributions are subject to social security and Medicare tax, so boxes 3 and 5 are higher than box 1. Your Section 125 premiums are excluded from boxes 1, 3, and 5.

Boxes 4 & 6

Social security tax withheld (6.2% of box 3, up to the wage base) and Medicare tax withheld (1.45% of box 5).

Box 12, Code DD

Cost of employer-sponsored health coverage. Informational only; not taxable and not deducted.

Box 13

The Retirement plan box is checked because you are an active participant in the NMERB defined-benefit plan.

Box 14, 414(H)

Your mandatory NMERB employee pick-up contributions for the year. Pre-tax for federal income tax; included in social security and Medicare wages.

Boxes 16–17

New Mexico state wages and state income tax withheld. New Mexico wages equal box 1.

Reconciliation: your Medicare wages (Box 5) exceed your federal taxable wages (Box 1) by the amount of your Box 14 414(h) pick-up contributions, because those contributions are pre-tax for income tax but are subject to social security and Medicare tax. Your Section 125 premiums are excluded from Boxes 1, 3, and 5 alike.

Notice to Employee (2025)

Do you have to file? Refer to the Form 1040 instructions to determine if you are required to file a return. Even if you do not have to file, you should file to get a refund if box 2 shows an amount or if you are eligible for any credit.

Earned income credit (EIC). You may be able to take the EIC for 2025 if your adjusted gross income is below the applicable limit and you meet the other requirements. See the Form 1040 instructions or Pub. 596.

Clergy and religious workers. If you are not subject to social security and Medicare taxes, see Pub. 517.

Corrections. If your name, SSN, or amounts are incorrect, contact your employer's payroll office to obtain a corrected Form W-2c. Keep Copy C and this notice for at least three years after the due date of your return.

Credit for excess social security tax. If you had more than one employer in 2025 and total social security tax withheld exceeded the annual maximum, the excess may be claimed as a credit on your return. (Not applicable where a single employer withheld correctly.)

Federal & NM withholding methodology

Federal income tax was withheld per the Form W-4 on file (filing status Head of Household; dependents claimed reduce per-period withholding). New Mexico income tax was withheld using the state percentage-method tables for the Head of Household column. Withholding is an estimate of annual liability; the actual liability is determined on the income-tax return. Because dependents were claimed on the W-4, per-period federal withholding is modest relative to gross wages.

Form W-4 on file (2025): Step 1 filing status Head of Household; Step 3 dependents claimed; Steps 2 and 4 blank. New Mexico uses federal Form W-4 information for state withholding.

Year-End Tax Filing Reminders & How to Read This Statement

How to read this statement

The Form W-2 reports the figures the employer sent to the Social Security Administration and the IRS. Use the box amounts when preparing your income-tax return; the supporting registers in this package explain how those box amounts were built from your pay periods.

Pre-tax amounts (NMERB 414(h) and Section 125 medical/dental/vision) reduce your federal and state taxable wages. The 414(h) amount is still subject to social security and Medicare tax, which is why boxes 3 and 5 exceed box 1.

Year-to-date columns on each pay statement accumulate across the year and end at the W-2 box totals shown on the Annual Earnings Record.

Year-end reminders

Verify your name, address, and social security number on the W-2. Report any error to Payroll Services so a corrected Form W-2c can be issued.

If you contributed to retirement accounts outside this plan, or had another employer during the year, bring those documents to your tax preparer as well.

The Retirement plan box (box 13) is checked; this can affect the deductibility of contributions to a traditional IRA depending on your income. See the Form 1040 instructions.

Keep this statement at least three years after the due date of your return.

Form W-2 copies: Copy B is filed with your federal return; Copy 2 with your New Mexico return; Copy C is for your records.
