Account Disclosures & Notices

Electronic Fund Transfers — Your Rights and Responsibilities (Regulation E)

This disclosure describes your and our rights and responsibilities concerning electronic fund transfers (EFTs). Electronic fund transfers are transactions performed through an automated process, including direct deposits, automated clearing house (ACH) debits and credits, point-of-sale and debit-card transactions, ATM transfers, telephone-banking transfers, and online and mobile transfers.

Types of transfers. You may arrange for the direct deposit of your pay and other recurring credits; preauthorized payments to third parties such as mortgage, loan, utility, and subscription billers; one-time and recurring transfers between your accounts; and debit-card purchases at merchants who accept the card. Some of these services may not be available at all terminals.

Preauthorized payments. If you have arranged in advance to make regular payments out of your account, you can stop any of these payments by calling or writing us in time for us to receive your request three business days or more before the payment is scheduled. If you call, we may also require you to put your request in writing within 14 days. If these regular payments may vary in amount, the person you are going to pay will tell you ten days before each payment when it will be made and how much it will be.

Your liability for unauthorized transfers. Tell us at once if you believe your card, PIN, or access credentials have been lost or stolen, or if you believe an EFT has been made without your permission. Telephoning is the best way to keep your possible losses down. If you tell us within two business days after you learn of the loss or theft, you can lose no more than $50. If you do not tell us within two business days and we can prove we could have stopped the transfer, you could lose as much as $500. In case of errors or questions about your electronic transfers, telephone us at (505) 555-0190 or write to Sandia Laguna FCU, P.O. Box 44190, Albuquerque, NM 87196 as soon as you can. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent the FIRST statement on which the problem or error appeared. Tell us your name and member number, describe the error or transfer you are unsure about and why you believe it is an error or why you need more information, and tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error. We will investigate and correct any error promptly; if we take more than 10 business days, we will provisionally credit your account so you have use of the money during the investigation.

Our liability. If we do not complete a transfer to or from your account on time or in the correct amount according to our agreement with you, we will be liable for your losses or damages. However, there are some exceptions; for example, if through no fault of ours you do not have enough money in your account, if the transfer would exceed an established limit, or if circumstances beyond our control prevent the transfer.

Confidentiality. We will disclose information to third parties about your account or the transfers you make only where necessary to complete transfers, to verify the existence and condition of your account for a third party, to comply with legal process or government agency rules, or where you give us written permission.

Truth-in-Savings — Account Disclosures

Primary Share Savings. The annual percentage yield (APY) is 3.45%, accurate as of the statement date. The dividend rate and APY may change at any time at the credit union's discretion. Dividends are compounded monthly and credited monthly. The dividend period is the calendar month. A minimum opening deposit of $25.00 (one share) is required to establish membership, and a $25.00 minimum daily balance must be maintained to keep the account open. If the account is closed before dividends are credited, accrued dividends will be paid.

Dividends are calculated by the daily balance method, which applies a daily periodic rate to the principal in the account each day. Dividends begin to accrue on the business day you deposit noncash items such as checks. The APY assumes dividends remain on deposit until maturity; a withdrawal will reduce earnings. Fees may reduce the earnings on the account.

Free Checking. There is no minimum balance requirement and no monthly service charge. The checking account does not earn dividends. Transaction limitations: you may make unlimited deposits and withdrawals. For savings and money market accounts, certain preauthorized or automatic transfers may be limited; excessive transactions may result in a fee or reclassification of the account.

Schedule of Fees and Charges

The following fees may be assessed against your account and are subject to change with at least 30 days' written notice where required by law: Overdraft (Courtesy Pay) item paid — $28.00 each; Non-sufficient funds (returned item) — $28.00 each; Continuous overdraft (after 5 calendar days) — $5.00 per day; Stop payment — $25.00; Domestic outgoing wire — $20.00; Incoming wire — $10.00; Statement copy — $3.00 per statement; Cashier's check — $5.00; Money order — $3.00; Card replacement (standard) — $7.50; Rush card — $35.00; Excessive savings withdrawal (over 6 per month) — $5.00 each; Non-network ATM transaction — $2.00; Account research — $20.00 per hour; Dormant account (after 12 months) — $5.00 per month; Returned-mail handling — $5.00.

There is no fee for online and mobile banking, e-statements, in-network ATM transactions, or the first box of standard checks each year. A complete fee schedule is available at any branch or at sandialaguna.example.org.

Overdraft and Courtesy Pay Policy

An overdraft occurs when you do not have enough money in your account to cover a transaction but we pay it anyway. We may, at our discretion, pay overdrafts for checks, ACH items, and recurring debit-card payments. We do not guarantee that we will always authorize and pay any type of transaction. If we do not authorize and pay an overdraft, your transaction will be declined. For everyday (one-time) debit-card and ATM transactions, we will not authorize and pay overdrafts unless you have opted in to that service. You may opt in or out at any time by contacting us at (505) 555-0190, visiting a branch, or using online banking. We may charge a fee as listed in the Schedule of Fees for each item we pay or return; the total fees we can charge you for overdrawing your account are limited as described in your account agreement.

Funds Availability Policy (Regulation CC)

Our policy is to make funds from your check and electronic deposits available to you on the first business day after the day we receive your deposit. Electronic direct deposits are available on the day we receive the deposit. Once funds are available, you can withdraw them in cash and we will use them to pay checks and items you have written.

For determining the availability of your deposits, every day is a business day except Saturdays, Sundays, and federal holidays. If you make a deposit before our cutoff time on a business day that we are open, we will consider that day to be the day of your deposit. In some cases we will not make all of the funds you deposit by check available on the first business day; depending on the type of check, funds may not be available until the second business day. The first $225 of your deposits, however, will generally be available on the first business day.

Longer delays may apply if we believe a check will not be paid, if you deposit checks totaling more than $5,525 on any one day, if you redeposit a check that has been returned unpaid, if you have overdrawn your account repeatedly, or if an emergency such as a communications failure occurs. We will notify you if we delay your ability to withdraw funds and tell you when the funds will be available.

Privacy Notice (Gramm-Leach-Bliley)

Sandia Laguna FCU collects nonpublic personal information about you from your applications and forms, your transactions with us, and consumer-reporting agencies. We collect this information to administer your accounts and provide the products and services you request. We do not sell your personal information.

We may disclose information to third parties as permitted by law, including to companies that perform services on our behalf (such as transaction processing and statement printing), to other financial institutions with whom we have joint-marketing agreements, and to government agencies in response to legal process. You may limit certain kinds of sharing; to do so, call (505) 555-0190. We restrict access to your information to employees who need it to provide products or services to you, and we maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with federal standards to guard your nonpublic personal information.

Important Statement Reminders & Insurance

Please examine this statement promptly and reconcile it to your records. If you find an error or unauthorized item, notify us within the time limits described above. Keep your statements with your records and for the preparation of your income-tax return; the 2025 Form 1099-INT included in this package reports interest you must consider on your 2025 return.

Your savings are federally insured to at least $250,000 and backed by the full faith and credit of the United States Government through the National Credit Union Administration (NCUA), a U.S. Government agency. Sandia Laguna FCU is an Equal Housing Opportunity lender. This institution is not a bank; it is a member-owned, not-for-profit financial cooperative.

Membership and Account Agreement (Excerpt)

1. Membership and Accounts

This Agreement governs your accounts with Sandia Laguna Federal Credit Union. By establishing or maintaining an account, you agree to the terms of this Agreement, the applicable rate and fee schedules, and the disclosures provided to you, each as amended from time to time. 'You' and 'your' mean each account owner; 'we,' 'us,' and 'our' mean the credit union. Membership requires the purchase and maintenance of at least one share ($25.00) in the primary savings account.

2. Account Ownership

Accounts may be owned individually or jointly with right of survivorship. For joint accounts, each owner authorizes the others to act on the account, and each is jointly and severally liable for any overdraft or other obligation. You may designate payable-on-death beneficiaries in accordance with applicable law; such designations take effect on the death of the last surviving owner.

3. Deposits

We may accept deposits made in person, by mail, by electronic transfer, or through remote channels. All deposits are subject to verification and to our Funds Availability Policy. We may refuse a deposit, return all or part of a deposit, or place a hold on funds, in accordance with applicable law. Items credited to your account that are returned unpaid may be charged back to your account.

4. Withdrawals

Any owner may withdraw funds, subject to the terms of this Agreement and applicable transaction limitations. We may require advance written notice of intent to withdraw from savings accounts. We may refuse a withdrawal that would exceed the available balance or that does not comply with our security procedures.

5. Overdrafts and Set-Off

If an item is presented against insufficient available funds, we may pay or return the item at our discretion and assess a fee as provided in the fee schedule. To the extent permitted by law, you grant us a lien on and a right of set-off against the funds in your accounts for any obligation you owe us, whether direct or contingent. The right of set-off does not apply to accounts where it is prohibited by law.

6. Statements and Notices

We will provide periodic statements for your accounts. You must examine each statement and report any error, unauthorized signature, or alteration within the time limits in the Electronic Fund Transfers disclosure and applicable law. Notices we send to the address shown in our records are deemed received. You agree to notify us promptly of any change of address.

7. Dormant Accounts and Escheat

If you do not initiate activity on your account for the period specified by New Mexico law, your account may be classified as dormant and may be subject to a dormant-account fee. Funds in accounts that remain inactive for the statutory period may be remitted to the State of New Mexico as unclaimed property.

8. Amendments and Termination

We may amend this Agreement and the rate and fee schedules at any time by providing notice as required by law. Your continued use of the account constitutes acceptance of the amended terms. Either you or we may close an account at any time; we will remit the available balance, less any amounts you owe us, to you.

9. Governing Law and Dispute Resolution

This Agreement is governed by federal law and the laws of the State of New Mexico. Any dispute regarding your account will be resolved in accordance with the dispute-resolution provisions of this Agreement and applicable law. The headings in this Agreement are for convenience only and do not affect its interpretation.

This excerpt summarizes selected provisions. The complete Membership and Account Agreement is available at any branch or at sandialaguna.example.org.

Electronic Services & Debit Card Agreement (Excerpt)

Online and Mobile Banking

You may use online and mobile banking to view balances and transactions, transfer funds between your accounts, pay bills, and receive electronic statements. You are responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of your login credentials and for all transactions made using them. Notify us immediately if you believe your credentials have been compromised.

Debit Card Use

Your debit card may be used to make purchases and obtain cash at participating merchants and ATMs. Each transaction is subject to available funds and applicable limits. Daily purchase and ATM withdrawal limits apply for security and may be adjusted by contacting us. International transactions may be subject to a currency-conversion process applied by the card network.

Preauthorized Recurring Card Payments

If you authorize a merchant to charge your card on a recurring basis, you are responsible for notifying the merchant to stop. We may, but are not obligated to, assist in stopping a recurring card payment. Updating or replacing your card may not automatically stop a merchant's recurring charge if the network shares your updated card information.

Electronic Statements

If you consent to electronic statements, we will notify you by email when each statement is available in online banking. You may withdraw consent and resume paper statements at any time; a paper-statement fee may apply as shown in the fee schedule.
