7. Independent Contractor Services Agreement (Reference Copy)

- 7.1 Engagement. Bellwether Studios Inc. ('Studio') engages the Contractor to provide musical performance, recording, and related creative services on a per-session, non-exclusive basis. Nothing in this agreement creates an employment, partnership, or agency relationship.
- 7.2 Independent status. The Contractor is an independent contractor. The Contractor is solely responsible for all taxes on amounts paid. The Studio will not withhold taxes from payments except as required by law.
- 7.3 Scope of services. Services include vocal and instrumental performance, topline writing, arrangement, comping, editing, and such other creative services as the parties agree per session. Call times, session length, and deliverables are set per engagement.
- 7.4 Compensation. The Contractor is compensated at the hourly or per-session rate agreed for each engagement, as itemized in the session ledger. Fees are invoiced by the Contractor and paid net-15 following approval.
- 7.5 Expenses. Unless pre-approved in writing, the Contractor bears the Contractor's own expenses, including instruments, equipment, transportation, and supplies.
- 7.6 Work product & rights. Master recordings and underlying session deliverables are works made for hire or are assigned to the commissioning party; the Contractor retains songwriter/publishing interests only where separately documented in a split sheet.
- 7.7 Credit. Performance and writing credit is provided in accordance with customary industry practice and any split sheet executed for the work.
- 7.8 Equipment. The Contractor furnishes the Contractor's own primary instruments. Studio-owned equipment used on premises remains Studio property.
- 7.9 Confidentiality. The Contractor will keep non-public information regarding unreleased works, clients, and business terms confidential during and after the engagement.
- 7.10 Representations. The Contractor represents that the Contractor's services and any contributed material do not infringe third-party rights and that the Contractor is free to enter this agreement.
- 7.11 Insurance. The Contractor is responsible for the Contractor's own health, disability, and instrument insurance. The Studio provides no benefits of any kind.
- 7.12 Term & termination. Each engagement is a discrete arrangement. Either party may decline future engagements at any time. Approved invoices for completed work remain payable.
- 7.13 Indemnity. Each party indemnifies the other against losses arising from its own breach, negligence, or violation of law in connection with the services.

7.14 Governing law. This agreement is governed by the laws of the State of Tennessee, without regard to conflict-of-laws principles. Venue lies in Davidson County, Tennessee.

7.15 Dispute resolution. The parties will attempt good-faith resolution of disputes; unresolved disputes are subject to binding arbitration in Nashville, Tennessee under the rules of a mutually agreed administrator.

7.16 Entire agreement. Each session confirmation, together with this reference agreement and any executed split sheet, constitutes the entire agreement for that engagement and supersedes prior understandings.

8. Important Tax Information for Contractors

- 1. This statement and the accompanying Form 1099-NEC report total compensation paid to you as an independent contractor during the calendar year. No income, Social Security, or Medicare tax has been withheld.
- 2. Amounts shown reflect payments made during the calendar year on a cash basis, regardless of the date services were performed or invoiced.
- 3. This document is provided for informational purposes and is not tax advice. Consult a qualified tax professional regarding your specific situation.
- 4. Retain this statement with your tax records. Direct questions about amounts to Bellwether accounts payable within 60 days of the statement date.
