Electronic Fund Transfers — Your Rights and Error Resolution

In case of errors or questions about your electronic transfers.

Telephone us at 1-800-555-0142 or write to Harbor Point Bank, 200 S Biscayne Blvd, Miami, FL 33131 as soon as you can if you think your statement or receipt is wrong, or if you need more information about a transfer listed on the statement. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the FIRST statement on which the problem or error appeared.

What to tell us.

Tell us your name and account number; describe the error or the transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe it is an error or why you need more information; and tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

Investigation.

We will investigate your complaint and will correct any error promptly. If we take more than 10 business days to do this, we will credit your account for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have the use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation.

Confidentiality.

We will disclose information to third parties about your account or the transfers you make only where necessary to complete transfers, to verify the existence and condition of your account, to comply with law, or with your written permission.

Funds Availability Policy

General policy.

Our policy is to make funds from your deposits available to you on the first business day after the day we receive your deposit. Electronic direct deposits are available on the day we receive the deposit.

Longer delays may apply.

Funds you deposit by check may be delayed for a longer period under certain circumstances, such as large deposits, redeposited checks, or deposits to new accounts. We will notify you if we delay your ability to withdraw funds, and we will tell you when the funds will be available.

Overdrafts.

If an item is presented for payment against insufficient available funds, we may return it unpaid. This account is not enrolled in overdraft coverage for everyday debit-card and ATM transactions.

Schedule of Common Fees

Service	Fee
Monthly maintenance (Everyday Checking)	$12.00 (waived with qualifying direct deposit)
Overdraft item	$34.00 each (max 3/day)
Returned item (NSF)	$34.00 each
Out-of-network ATM	$3.00
Outgoing domestic wire	$25.00
Stop payment	$30.00
Paper statement	$3.00/month
Replacement debit card	$5.00

Overdrafts & Nonsufficient Funds

How transactions are posted.

We generally post deposits first, then withdrawals in the order they are received for processing each business day. The order in which items post can affect whether an overdraft occurs and the number of fees assessed.

Standard overdraft practices.

We may, at our discretion, pay checks, ACH, and recurring debit-card payments that overdraw your account and charge an overdraft fee. We do not authorize and pay overdrafts for everyday debit-card or ATM transactions unless you have opted in.

Fees.

An overdraft fee of $34.00 may apply to each item paid into overdraft, with a maximum of three such fees per business day. A returned-item fee of $34.00 may apply to each item returned unpaid.

Debit Card, ATM & Person-to-Person Transfers

Debit card.

Your Harbor Point debit card may be used at merchants and ATMs that accept it. You are responsible for transactions you authorize. Report a lost or stolen card immediately to limit your liability under federal law.

ATM fees.

We do not charge a fee for using Harbor Point ATMs. Out-of-network ATM operators may charge a separate surcharge in addition to the $3.00 out-of-network fee shown in the fee schedule.

Zelle and external transfers.

Person-to-person payments and external transfers are subject to separate terms and may post on a delayed basis. Send money only to people you know and trust; such payments may not be reversible.

Binding Arbitration & Dispute Resolution

The Deposit Account Agreement contains a binding arbitration provision and a waiver of jury trial and class actions for most disputes between you and Harbor Point Bank. You may reject the arbitration provision by following the opt-out procedure described in the Agreement within the time stated there. Nothing in this statement modifies the Deposit Account Agreement, which governs your accounts.

Interest rates and annual percentage yields are variable and may change at our discretion after the account is opened. To report a lost or stolen card or suspected fraud, call 1-800-555-0142 at any time. Harbor Point Bank, N.A. is a Member FDIC institution and an Equal Housing Lender.

Electronic Fund Transfers — Types, Limits & Liability

Types of transfers available.

You may make the following kinds of electronic fund transfers: preauthorized (recurring) credits such as direct deposit of your pay; preauthorized debits such as automatic bill payments you authorize; point-of-sale purchases with your debit card; ATM withdrawals, deposits, and transfers; and transfers you initiate through online banking, the mobile app, or by telephone. Some of these services may have separate agreements and limits.

Limitations on transfers.

For security reasons, there are limits on the dollar amount and number of certain transfers, such as daily debit-card and ATM limits. We may change these limits and may decline transactions that exceed them or that we believe may be unauthorized.

Fees for electronic transfers.

We do not charge for direct deposits or for transfers between your Harbor Point accounts. Other fees, such as out-of-network ATM fees and outgoing wire fees, are listed in the fee schedule. ATM operators outside our network may impose an additional surcharge.

Your liability for unauthorized transfers.

Tell us at once if you believe your card, PIN, or access credentials have been lost or stolen, or if you believe an electronic transfer was made without your permission. Telephoning is the best way to keep your possible losses down. If you tell us within two business days after you learn of the loss or theft, you can lose no more than $50. If you do not tell us within two business days and we can prove we could have stopped someone from using your access without your permission, you could lose as much as $500. If your statement shows transfers you did not make and you do not tell us within 60 days after the statement was sent, you may not get back money you lost after the 60 days if we can prove we could have stopped the transfers had you told us in time.

Preauthorized payments — right to stop.

If you have told us in advance to make regular payments out of your account, you can stop any of these payments by calling or writing us in time for us to receive your request three business days or more before the payment is scheduled. If you order us to stop one of these payments three business days or more before the transfer is scheduled and we do not do so, we will be liable for your losses or damages.

Notice of varying amounts.

If your regular preauthorized payments may vary in amount, the person you are going to pay is required to tell you, ten days before each payment, when it will be made and how much it will be.

Documentation of transfers.

You can get a receipt at the time you make a transfer at an ATM or point of sale. You will receive a periodic statement reflecting your electronic transfers. If you have arranged direct deposits, you may verify whether a deposit has been made by contacting us or using digital banking.

Our liability for failure to make transfers.

If we do not complete a transfer to or from your account on time or in the correct amount according to our agreement, we may be liable for your losses or damages. However, there are exceptions, including where, through no fault of ours, you do not have enough available funds, the system was not working properly and you knew about the breakdown, or circumstances beyond our control prevented the transfer.

Funds Availability — Detailed Rules

Determining the availability of a deposit.

The length of the delay is counted in business days from the day of your deposit. Every day is a business day except Saturdays, Sundays, and federal holidays. If you make a deposit before our cutoff time on a business day that we are open, we will consider that day to be the day of your deposit. Otherwise, we will consider the deposit made on the next business day we are open.

Longer delays may apply.

In some cases we will not make all of the funds you deposit by check available on the first business day. Depending on the type of check, funds may not be available until the second business day. The first $225 of your deposits, however, will generally be available on the first business day. We may delay availability if we believe a check will not be paid, you deposit checks totaling more than $5,525 on any one day, you redeposit a check that has been returned unpaid, you have overdrawn your account repeatedly, or there is an emergency such as a failure of communications or computer equipment.

Holds on other funds.

If we accept a check for deposit drawn on another institution, we may make funds from the deposit available for withdrawal immediately but delay your availability to withdraw a corresponding amount of funds you already have on deposit. The funds would then be available at the time funds from the check would have been available had you deposited the check.

Special rules for new accounts.

If you are a new customer, different funds-availability rules may apply during the first 30 days your account is open. Funds from certain deposits may be delayed longer than for established accounts.

Deposits at automated teller machines.

Funds from any deposits made at ATMs we own or operate may not be available until the business day after the deposit. Deposits at ATMs we do not own or operate may be subject to additional delay.

Wire Transfers, ACH & Funds-Transfer Terms

Provisional credit.

Credit we give you for an automated clearing house (ACH) or wire transfer is provisional until we receive final settlement. If we do not receive final settlement, we are entitled to a refund from you and the party making payment will not be considered to have paid you.

No notice of receipt.

Under operating rules applicable to ACH transactions, we are not required to give you next-day notice of receipt of an ACH item, and we will not do so. We will continue to notify you of the receipt of such payments in your periodic statement.

Cutoff times and processing.

Funds-transfer requests received after our cutoff time, or on a day we are not open, may be treated as received on the next business day. We may process requests in any order we determine.

Reliance on identifying numbers.

If your instruction identifies a beneficiary or institution by both a name and an account or routing number, we and other institutions may rely on the number even if it identifies a party different from the named one. You are responsible for the accuracy of the information you provide.

Cancellation and amendment.

A funds-transfer request may not be amended or cancelled after we receive it unless we agree and are reasonably able to act on the request. We are not liable if a cancellation is not effected.

Deposit Account Agreement & Disclosures

The following disclosures are part of your Deposit Account Agreement and are provided with your periodic statement. They govern your accounts together with the applicable rate and fee schedules.

Truth in Savings — interest.

The interest rate and annual percentage yield (APY) on your Premier Savings account are variable and may change at any time at our discretion. Interest is compounded daily and credited monthly. Interest begins to accrue no later than the business day we receive credit for the deposit of noncash items. If you close your account before interest is credited, you will not receive the accrued interest. Fees may reduce earnings.

Minimum balance and method.

We use the daily balance method to calculate interest, which applies a daily periodic rate to the principal in the account each day. There is no minimum balance required to obtain the disclosed APY on the Premier Savings account; other minimums may apply to avoid certain fees on the checking account.

Substitute checks and your rights.

To make check processing faster, federal law permits banks to replace original checks with 'substitute checks.' A substitute check is the legal equivalent of the original. In certain cases, federal law provides a special procedure (expedited recredit) that allows you to request a refund for losses you suffer if a substitute check is posted to your account, subject to the limits and time frames described in the Agreement.

Account ownership and beneficiaries.

Your account ownership is as designated on our records. For multiple-party accounts, funds may be paid to or on the order of any owner. You may designate payable-on-death (POD) beneficiaries; on the death of the last owner, funds belong to the surviving named beneficiaries in equal shares, subject to applicable law and our requirements.

Dormant accounts and unclaimed property.

If you do not initiate activity on your account for the period specified by state law, your account may be classified as dormant and, if it remains inactive, the funds may be remitted to the state as unclaimed property (escheatment). Fees may apply to dormant accounts where permitted by law.

Right of set-off.

Subject to applicable law, we may use the funds in your account to pay any debt you owe us, including amounts due on loans, by exercising our right of set-off without prior notice, except where prohibited.

Legal process.

We may comply with any writ of attachment, execution, garnishment, tax levy, subpoena, restraining order, court order, or similar legal process that we believe to be valid. We may charge a fee and deduct it from your account for processing legal process.

Stop payments.

You may request a stop payment on a check; the request must be received in time for us to act before the item is paid. Stop-payment orders are subject to the fee in the fee schedule and to the time limits and renewal requirements stated in the Agreement.

Statement review and liability.

You agree to examine your statement promptly and to notify us of any unauthorized signature, alteration, or other error. If you fail to notify us within the time periods described in the Agreement and applicable law, you may be precluded from asserting certain claims against us.

Amendments, notices, and governing law.

We may change the terms of the Agreement and the rate and fee schedules with notice as required by law. Notices we send to the address on file are effective when sent. Your accounts are governed by federal law and, to the extent applicable, the laws of the state in which your account is maintained.

Telephone monitoring and electronic communications.

We may monitor or record telephone calls for quality and security. By consenting to electronic communications, you agree to receive statements, notices, and disclosures electronically; you may withdraw consent as described in the E-SIGN disclosure.

Deposit insurance.

Deposits at Harbor Point Bank, N.A. are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) up to the maximum amount allowed by law, currently $250,000 per depositor, per insured bank, for each account ownership category.
