Account Performance

Time-Weighted Return (net of fees)

Year-to-date (2025)	+15.1%
1-year	+15.1%
Since inception (annualized)	+7.8%
Beginning value (Jan 1, 2025)	$3,676.50
Ending value (Dec 31, 2025)	$4,230.60

1 Beacon Plaza, Jersey City, NJ 07302 · 1-855-555-0144

Dividends & interest paid to cash	$222.00
Past performance does not guarantee future results. Returns reflect price changes and distributions and are net of fund expense ratios; index funds carry market risk and can lose value.

Fund Information

Fund	Net expense ratio	Category	Distribution frequency
BTMX — Beacon Total US Market Index ETF	0.03%	US total market equity	Quarterly
BBDX — Beacon US Aggregate Bond Index ETF	0.04%	US investment-grade bonds	Monthly
BCASH — Beacon Government Money Market	0.11%	Government money market	Monthly

Expense ratios are charged within each fund and are reflected in fund performance, not billed separately. Read each fund's prospectus before investing.

Tax Lot Detail (Information Only)

Lots held in your account. Lot-level basis is used to determine gain or loss when shares are sold.

Symbol	Acquired	Shares	Cost	Source
BTMX	2024-08-12	14.0000	$2,730.00	Original purchase
BBDX	2024-08-12	9.0000	$603.00	Original purchase

Cash distributions are paid to the BCASH sweep and are not reinvested into shares; no additional share lots were created during 2025.

Realized Gains and Losses — 2025

Category	Proceeds	Cost basis	Realized gain/(loss)
Short-term (securities sold)	$0.00	$0.00	$0.00
Long-term (securities sold)	$0.00	$0.00	$0.00
Total realized	$0.00	$0.00	$0.00

You did not sell any securities during 2025, so there is no realized gain or loss and no Form 1099-B. Unrealized gain on your current holdings (market value less cost basis) is $657.60.

Keep this statement with your tax records. Beacon does not provide tax advice; the treatment of these amounts on your return depends on your overall tax situation.

How to Read Your Statement

Account value summary.

Shows how your account changed during the year: the beginning value, money added or removed, income paid in, the change in the market value of your investments, and the ending value.

Holdings.

Lists what you owned at the end of the period, with the number of shares, the price used to value them, your cost basis, and the resulting market value.

Income.

Dividends and interest paid to your account during the year. These are reported to the IRS on your Consolidated Form 1099.

Cost basis and gains.

Cost basis is generally what you paid for an investment. No securities were sold during 2025, so no realized gain or loss is reported and no Form 1099-B is included.

Cash sweep.

Uninvested cash, including distributions paid in, is held in your money market sweep until you invest or withdraw it.

Glossary

Term	Meaning
Cost basis	Generally the amount paid to acquire an investment, used to determine gain or loss when sold.
Qualified dividend	A dividend reported in Box 1b that meets certain holding-period and other requirements.
Ordinary dividend	A dividend reported in Box 1a; Box 1a includes the qualified dividends in Box 1b.
Distribution	A payment of dividends or interest from a fund or sweep to your account.
Cash sweep	An account feature that automatically holds uninvested cash in a money market vehicle.
Expense ratio	The annual cost of owning a fund, charged within the fund as a percentage of assets.
Unrealized gain/loss	The difference between current market value and cost basis on investments you still hold.
SIPC	The Securities Investor Protection Corporation, which protects customer securities within limits.

Important Account Disclosures

SIPC protection.

Beacon Markets LLC is a member of the Securities Investor Protection Corporation (SIPC). SIPC protects securities customers of its members up to $500,000 (including $250,000 for claims for cash). SIPC does not protect against the decline in value of your securities. An explanatory brochure is available at sipc.org.

Not FDIC insured.

Securities and other investment products are not deposits, are not FDIC insured, are not insured by any federal government agency, are not guaranteed by the broker or any bank, and may lose value, including loss of principal.

Money market funds.

You could lose money by investing in a money market fund. A money market fund is not a bank deposit and is not insured or guaranteed by the FDIC or any government agency.

Cost basis reporting.

For covered securities, we report cost basis to the IRS on Form 1099-B when sold. Because you did not sell any securities in 2025, no Form 1099-B is included. We use first-in, first-out for securities unless you elect otherwise.

Cash distributions.

Dividends and money-market interest are paid to your cash sweep. They are reported on your Consolidated Form 1099.

Order routing and execution.

Information about the firm's order-routing practices under SEC Rule 606 is available on request and at our website. We seek to obtain best execution for your orders.

Free credit balances.

Cash awaiting investment is held in the Beacon Government Money Market sweep. You may request payment of any free credit balance at any time, subject to the terms of your account agreement.

Business continuity.

Beacon maintains a business continuity plan to address significant business disruptions. A summary is available on request.

Regulatory DisclosuresRegulation Best Interest and Form CRS.

When we make a recommendation to you, we are required to act in your best interest. Our relationship summary (Form CRS) describes our services, fees, conflicts of interest, and standards of conduct, and is available on request. Because your account is self-directed, you make the ultimate investment decisions.

FINRA BrokerCheck.

You can obtain information about Beacon Markets LLC and its registered representatives, including registration status and disciplinary history, through FINRA BrokerCheck at brokercheck.finra.org.

Payment for order flow.

Beacon may receive remuneration, such as payment for order flow, for directing orders to particular market centers. The source and amount of any such compensation will be furnished on written request.

Margin and day-trading.

Your account is a cash account without margin features. Margin borrowing and day trading involve significant risk, including the potential loss of more than your initial investment; these disclosures are provided for your awareness.

Proxy voting and shareholder communications.

As a fund shareholder you may receive proxy materials and shareholder communications. You are responsible for voting your shares; Beacon does not vote proxies for self-directed accounts.

Fund Information Summaries

Summary information for the funds you hold. Read each fund's prospectus before investing.

BTMX — Beacon Total US Market Index ETF.

Objective: to track the total return of a broad index of US stocks across large-, mid-, and small-capitalization segments. Principal risks: stock market risk and index-tracking risk. Net expense ratio: 0.03%. The fund is passively managed and broadly diversified but will decline when the US stock market declines.

BBDX — Beacon US Aggregate Bond Index ETF.

Objective: to track a broad investment-grade US bond index. Principal risks: interest-rate risk (bond prices fall when rates rise), credit risk, and income risk. Net expense ratio: 0.04%. The fund distributes income monthly, generally taxed as ordinary income.

BCASH — Beacon Government Money Market.

Objective: current income consistent with stability of principal and liquidity, investing in short-term US government securities. You could lose money; the fund is not insured by the FDIC. Net expense ratio: 0.11%.

Fees, Householding & Privacy

Account fees.

This account has no annual maintenance fee and no commissions on Beacon index ETFs. Other fees, such as outgoing account transfer and wire fees, are described in the fee schedule available on our website.

Householding of documents.

To reduce mail, we may deliver a single copy of certain documents to investors who share an address. You may request separate copies at any time at no charge.

Privacy.

Beacon Markets collects and protects your personal information and shares it only as permitted by law. We do not sell your personal information. You may limit certain sharing as permitted by law by contacting us.

Errors and inquiries.

Review your statement promptly and report any discrepancy within 10 days. Address account inquiries to Beacon Markets LLC, 1 Beacon Plaza, Jersey City, NJ 07302, or call 1-855-555-0144.

Tax reporting.

This statement and the Consolidated Form 1099 are provided for your tax records. Amounts may be reclassified after year end; if so, a corrected Form 1099 will be issued. Consult a tax professional.
