How We Calculate Your Balance & Interest

Statement closing date December 22, 2025 · Payment due January 16, 2026

Average daily balance (including new purchases).

We figure the interest charge on your account by applying the periodic rate to the average daily balance for each balance type. To get the average daily balance, we take the beginning balance each day, add any new charges and fees, and subtract any payments or credits; this gives the daily balance. We add up all the daily balances for the billing cycle and divide by the number of days in the cycle.

How to avoid paying interest on purchases.

Your due date is at least 23 days after the close of each billing cycle. We will not charge interest on new purchases if you pay your entire balance by the due date each month. Because you carried a balance, interest was charged on purchases this period.

Paying interest.

If you do not pay the new balance in full by the due date, interest is charged on the unpaid purchase balance and on new purchases from the date they post.

Minimum payment.

Your minimum payment is the greater of a fixed dollar amount or a percentage of your balance plus billed interest and fees. Paying more than the minimum reduces your balance and interest faster.

Variable rates.

Variable APRs are based on the Prime Rate published in a national financial newspaper plus a margin. If the Prime Rate changes, your variable APRs and your interest charges may change.

Your Billing Rights — Keep This Document for Future Use

What to do if you find a mistake on your statement.

If you think there is an error on your statement, write to us at Lumen Bank Cardmember Services, PO Box 19045, Wilmington, DE 19850. In your letter, give us the following information: your name and account number, the dollar amount of the suspected error, and a description of why you believe it is an error. You must contact us within 60 days after the error appeared on your statement.

What will happen after we receive your letter.

When we receive your letter, we must do two things: (1) within 30 days, tell you that we received your letter, and (2) within 90 days, either correct the error or explain why we believe the bill is correct. While we investigate, you do not have to pay the amount in question, but you are responsible for the remainder of your balance.

Your rights if you are dissatisfied with a purchase.

If you are dissatisfied with goods or services purchased with your card and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the purchase, subject to the conditions and limitations described by law (generally, the purchase must have been more than $50 and made in your home state or within 100 miles of your address).

Your payments.

You must pay at least the minimum payment by the due date each billing cycle. Payments must be made in U.S. dollars and in the manner described on your statement. We may apply payments at or above the minimum to balances with the highest APR first, as required by law.

Minimum payment.

Your minimum payment equals any past-due amount plus the greater of a fixed dollar amount or a percentage of your new balance, plus billed interest and certain fees, rounded as described in the Agreement.

Interest charges.

Interest is calculated using the average daily balance method (including new purchases) and the applicable daily periodic rate. You can avoid interest on new purchases by paying your full balance by the due date each month.

Variable rates.

Variable APRs are determined by adding a margin to the Prime Rate. When the Prime Rate changes, your variable APRs change on the first day of the billing cycle in which the change occurs.

Fees.

You agree to pay the fees disclosed in the Rates and Fees Table, including late payment and returned payment fees, and cash advance and balance transfer fees where applicable.

Default.

You will be in default if you fail to make a required payment when due, exceed your credit limit, make a payment that is not honored, file for bankruptcy, or otherwise breach this Agreement. Upon default, we may, to the extent permitted by law, increase your APRs and require immediate payment of your balance.

Closing your account.

You or we may close your account at any time. If your account is closed, you must still repay the full balance under the terms of this Agreement.

Lost or stolen card; liability.

Notify us immediately if your card is lost or stolen or if you suspect unauthorized use. You will not be liable for unauthorized charges if you notify us promptly; otherwise your liability is limited as provided by law.

Changes to your Agreement.

We may change the terms of this Agreement, including rates and fees, subject to the notice requirements of applicable law. For certain significant changes, you may have the right to reject the change and pay off your balance under the prior terms.

Arbitration.

This Agreement contains a binding arbitration provision and a class-action waiver for most disputes. You may reject the arbitration provision by following the procedure and meeting the deadline stated in the Agreement.

Assignment and governing law.

We may assign your account and our rights under this Agreement. This Agreement is governed by federal law and the law of the state specified in the Agreement.

Credit reporting.

We may report information about your account to credit bureaus. Late payments, missed payments, and high utilization may be reflected in your credit report and may lower your credit score. If you believe we have reported inaccurate information, write to us at the address for billing inquiries.
