Cost Basis of Noncovered Securities — Account Records

The following acquisition costs are carried in your account records for noncovered lots. These amounts are not reported to the IRS on Form 1099-B; they are provided so you can determine reportable gain or loss.

Security	Lot acquired	Shares	Disposition	Acquisition cost
Boeing Co (BA)	06/02/2009	120 (sold 10/06/2025)	Sold 2025	6,100.00
Boeing Co (BA)	06/02/2009	60 (retained)	Held	3,050.00
Original lot total	06/02/2009	180		9,150.00

The Boeing position was acquired as a single lot of 180 shares on June 2, 2009. Of that lot, 120 shares were sold during the year and 60 shares were retained. The per-share acquisition cost is applied pro rata.

Glossary of Terms

Covered security. A security for which the broker must report adjusted cost basis to the IRS, generally based on the acquisition date.

Noncovered security. A security for which only gross proceeds are reported to the IRS; the holder determines and reports basis.

Cost basis. Generally the amount paid for a security, adjusted for items such as reinvested distributions, wash sales, and corporate actions.

Qualified dividend. An ordinary dividend that meets holding-period and other requirements and may be taxed at reduced capital-gain rates.

Capital gain distribution. A distribution of net realized long-term gains by a fund; treated as long-term regardless of the holding period of the fund shares.

Exempt-interest dividend. A distribution from a municipal bond fund that is generally exempt from federal income tax.

Wash sale. A loss disallowed when a substantially identical security is purchased within 30 days before or after a sale at a loss; the disallowed loss increases the basis of the replacement shares.

DRIP. Dividend reinvestment program; distributions are used to purchase additional, often fractional, shares.

Disclosures and Important Information
