How to Balance Your Account

To reconcile this statement to your own records: (1) Begin with the Ending Balance shown above. (2) Add any deposits or credits you have recorded that are not yet listed on this statement. (3) Subtract any checks, withdrawals, or debits you have recorded that are not yet listed. (4) The adjusted figure should equal the balance in your check register. If it does not, verify each item against the Transaction Detail, confirm that recurring autopay amounts match the merchant's billing, and check for transposed figures.

Recurring items on this account include payroll direct deposit, a monthly mortgage ACH to the loan servicer, scheduled transfers to your linked savings and brokerage accounts, utility autopays, and several subscription services billed at the same amount each month. Reviewing recurring charges periodically helps confirm you still use and intend each one.

Electronic Fund Transfers — Your Rights

In Case of Errors or Questions About Your Electronic Transfers, telephone us or write to us at the address shown on the front of this statement as soon as you can if you think your statement or receipt is wrong, or if you need more information about a transfer listed on the statement. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the FIRST statement on which the problem or error appeared. (1) Tell us your name and account number. (2) Describe the error or the transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe it is an error or why you need more information. (3) Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error. We will investigate your complaint and will correct any error promptly. If we take more than 10 business days to do this, we will credit your account for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have the use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation.

This information can include Social Security number and income; account balances and transaction history; and credit history and payment history. When you are no longer our customer, we continue to share your information as described in this notice.

How? All financial companies need to share customers' personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customers' personal information; the reasons Heartland State Bank chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

For our marketing purposes — to offer our products and services to you	Yes	No
For joint marketing with other financial companies	No	We don't share
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes — information about your transactions and experiences	Yes	No
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes — information about your creditworthiness	No	We don't share
For nonaffiliates to market to you	No	We don't share

To limit our sharing or ask questions, call 1-800-555-0142. We must protect your information through security measures that comply with federal law, including computer safeguards and secured files and buildings. We collect your personal information, for example, when you open an account, deposit money, pay your bills, or use your debit card.

Your Ability to Withdraw Funds (Funds Availability Policy)

Our policy is to make funds from your cash and check deposits available to you on the first business day after the day we receive your deposit. Electronic direct deposits are available on the day we receive the deposit. Once funds are available, you can withdraw them in cash and we will use the funds to pay checks and items that you have written or authorized.

For determining the availability of your deposits, every day is a business day except Saturdays, Sundays, and federal holidays. If you make a deposit before our cutoff time on a business day that we are open, we will consider that day to be the day of your deposit. However, if you make a deposit after the cutoff time or on a day we are not open, we will consider the deposit made on the next business day we are open.

Longer Delays May Apply. Funds you deposit by check may be delayed for a longer period under the following circumstances: we believe a check you deposit will not be paid; you deposit checks totaling more than $6,725 on any one day; you redeposit a check that has been returned unpaid; you have overdrawn your account repeatedly in the last six months; or there is an emergency, such as failure of communications or computer equipment. We will notify you if we delay your ability to withdraw funds, and we will tell you when the funds will be available, generally no later than the seventh business day after the day of your deposit.

Overdraft Practices & Courtesy Pay

An overdraft occurs when you do not have enough money in your account to cover a transaction, but we pay it anyway. We can cover your overdrafts in two ways: through standard overdraft practices that come with your account, and through overdraft protection by linking your checking account to your savings account. We do not charge a fee for transfers from a linked savings account. Under our standard overdraft practice, we will charge you a fee (see Fee Schedule) each time we pay an overdraft. We will not charge a fee that causes your account balance to fall below negative $34.00. You have the right to revoke consent for overdraft coverage of everyday debit-card and ATM transactions at any time by contacting us. This account is not currently enrolled in everyday debit-card overdraft coverage.

Interest, Rates & Account Agreement Highlights

Premier Checking is a non-interest-bearing transaction account; no annual percentage yield (APY) is paid on balances in this account. Linked savings and money-market accounts earn interest at the rates disclosed on their separate periodic statements. Rates are variable and may change after the account is opened at the Bank's discretion.

Minimum balance to avoid the monthly maintenance fee. You must maintain a minimum daily balance of $1,500.00 in this account each day or receive qualifying direct deposits of at least $1,000.00 per statement cycle to avoid the $14.00 monthly maintenance fee. During this statement period the fee was waived each cycle by qualifying direct deposit.

Account agreement. Your use of this account is governed by the Deposit Account Agreement and Schedule of Fees provided to you at account opening and available at any branch or online. By continuing to use the account you agree to its terms, including the sections on electronic transfers, funds availability, dispute resolution, and the Bank's right to amend the agreement with notice as required by law. Items presented against insufficient available funds may be returned unpaid; representment of a returned item may occur and is governed by the agreement.

Substitute checks and your rights. A substitute check is a paper reproduction of the original check that can be used as proof of payment just like the original. Certain federal rights may apply when you receive a substitute check and, through no fault of your own, suffer a loss related to the substitute check. These rights do not apply to original checks or to electronic debits to your account. Contact us for a full description of your substitute-check rights.
